MODULE NAME:	MODULE CODE:
PSYCHOLOGY 2A: SOCIAL PSYCHOLOGY	PSYC6221/w

ASSESSMENT TYPE:	TAKE-HOME EXAM (PAPER ONLY)
TOTAL MARK ALLOCATION:	120 MARKS
TOTAL TIME:	21 HOURS (midnight to 9PM on the same day)

By submitting this assessment, you acknowledge that you have read and understood all the rules as per the terms in the registration contract, in particular the assignment and assessment rules in The IIE Assessment Strategy and Policy (IIE009), the intellectual integrity and plagiarism rules in the Intellectual Integrity and Property Rights Policy (IIE023), as well as any rules and regulations published in the student portal.

INSTRUCTIONS:

1. Please adhere to all instructions. These instructions are different from what is normally present, so take time to go through these carefully.
2. Independent work is required. Students are not allowed to work together on this assessment. Any contraventions of this will be handled as per disciplinary procedures in The IIE policy.*
3. No material may be copied from original sources, even if referenced correctly, unless it is a direct quote indicated with quotation marks.
4. All work must be adequately and correctly referenced.
5. You should paraphrase (use your own words) the concepts that you are referencing, rather than quoting directly.
6. This is an open-book assessment.
7. Assessments must be typed unless otherwise specified.
8. Ensure that you save a copy of your responses.
   - 8.1. Complete your responses in a Word document.
   - 8.2. The document name must be your name.student number.Module Code.
   - 8.3. Once you have completed the assessment, upload your document under the submission link in the correct module in Learn.

© The Independent Institute of Education (Pty) Ltd 2023

Referencing Rubric

Providing evidence based on valid and referenced academic sources is a fundamental educational principle and the cornerstone of high-quality academic work. Hence, The IIE considers it essential to develop the referencing skills of our students in our commitment to achieve high academic standards. Part of achieving these high standards is referencing in a way that is consistent, technically correct and congruent. This is not plagiarism, which is handled differently.

Poor quality formatting in your referencing will result in a penalty of a maximum of ten percent being deducted from the percentage awarded, according to the following guidelines. Please note, however, that evidence of plagiarism in the form of copied or uncited work (not referenced), absent reference lists, or exceptionally poor referencing, may result in action being taken in accordance with The IIE's Intellectual Integrity Policy (0023).

Markers are required to provide feedback to students by indicating (circling/underlining) the information that best describes the student's work.

Minor technical referencing errors: 5% deduction from the overall percentage – the student's work contains five or more errors listed in the minor errors column in the table below.

Major technical referencing errors: 10% deduction from the overall percentage – the student's work contains five or more errors listed in the major errors column in the table below.

If both minor and major errors are indicated, then 10% only (and not 5% or 15%) is deducted from the overall percentage. The examples provided below are not exhaustive but are provided to illustrate the error

Required: Technically correct referencing style	Minor errors in technical correctness of referencing style Deduct 5% from percentage awarded	Major errors in technical correctness of referencing style Deduct 10% from percentage awarded
Consistency • The same referencing format has been used for all in-text references and in the bibliography/reference list.	Minor inconsistencies. • The referencing style is generally consistent, but there are one or two changes in the format of in-text referencing and/or in the bibliography. • For example, page numbers for direct quotes (in-text) have been provided for one source, but not in another instance. Two book chapters (bibliography) have been referenced in the bibliography in two different formats.	Major inconsistencies. • Poor and inconsistent referencing style used in-text and/or in the bibliography/ reference list. • Multiple formats for the same type of referencing have been used. • For example, the format for direct quotes (in-text) and/or book chapters (bibliography/ reference list) is different across multiple instances.
Technical correctness • Referencing format is technically correct throughout the submission. • The correct referencing format for the module's discipline has been used, i.e., either APA, OR Harvard OR Law. • Position of the reference: a reference is directly associated with every concept or idea. • For example, quotation marks, page numbers, years, etc. are applied correctly, sources in the bibliography/reference list are correctly presented.	Generally, technically correct with some minor errors. • The correct referencing format has been consistently used, but there are one or two errors. • Concepts and ideas are typically referenced, but a reference is missing from one small section of the work. • Position of the references: references are only given at the beginning or end of every paragraph. • For example, the student has incorrectly presented direct quotes (in-text) and/or book chapters (bibliography/reference list).	Technically incorrect. • The referencing format is incorrect. • Concepts and ideas are typically referenced, but a reference is missing from small sections of the work. • Position of the references: references are only given at the beginning or end of large sections of work. • For example, incorrect author information is provided, no year of publication is provided, quotation marks and/or page numbers for direct quotes missing, page numbers are provided for paraphrased material, the incorrect punctuation is used (in-text); the bibliography/reference list is not in alphabetical order, the incorrect format for a book chapter/journal article is used, information is missing e.g. no place of publication had been provided (bibliography); repeated sources on the reference list.
Congruence between in-text referencing and bibliography/ reference list • All sources are accurately reflected and are all accurately included in the bibliography/ reference list.	Generally, congruence between the in-text referencing and the bibliography/ reference list with one or two errors. • There is largely a match between the sources presented in-text and the bibliography. • For example, a source appears in the text, but not in the bibliography/ reference list or vice versa.	A lack of congruence between the in-text referencing and the bibliography. • No relationship/several incongruencies between the in-text referencing and the bibliography/reference list. • For example, sources are included in-text, but not in the bibliography and vice versa, a link, rather than the actual reference is provided in the bibliography.
In summary: the recording of references is accurate and complete.	In summary, at least 80% of the sources are correctly reflected and included in a reference list.	In summary, at least 60% of the sources are incorrectly reflected and/or not included in reference list.

Overall Feedback about the consistency, technical correctness and congruence between in-text referencing and bibliography:

.....

.....

© The Independent Institute of Education (Pty) Ltd 2023

Question 1 (Marks: 30)

What makes us think and behave the way we do? Social psychologists are interested in trying to understand the number of variables that shape our social thought and behaviour.

Discuss (for 5 marks each) any three of the five major causes of social behaviour and provide an example for each (for 5 marks per example to a maximum of 15 marks).

Note: You must provide original examples (and not the ones provided in the prescribed material or the internet).

Criteria: Essay Q.1	Does not meet the required standard	Meets the required standard	Exceeds the required standard
Discussion	0 – 2 marks	3 marks	4-5 marks
	Use this rubric for each of the three provided discussions
	• The student made little to no effort to provide an accurate discussion of a major causes of social behaviour.	• The student attempted to provide an accurate discussion of any three of a major causes of social behaviour; however, it is not as clear, and or insightful as it could be.	• The student provided a clear and accurate discussion of a major causes of social behaviour, in an insightful manner.

Criteria: Essay Q.1	Does not meet the required standard	Meets the required standard	Exceeds the required standard
Examples	0 – 2 marks	3 marks	4-5 marks
	Use this rubric for the three examples
	• The student made little to no effort to provide an accurate example of a major causes of social behaviour.	• The student attempted to provide an accurate example of a major causes of social behaviour; however it is not as accurate and/ or clear as it could be.	• The student provided a clear and accurate example of a major causes of social behaviour, in an insightful manner.

© The Independent Institute of Education (Pty) Ltd 2023

Question 2		(Marks: 40)
We all know the saying "Birds of a feather flock together", and "Opposites attract" These are two contradicting statements. Discuss the following questions based on these statements. Make use of relevant and credible references to answer the questions that follow.
Q.2.1	Discuss the Similarity: Birds of a Feather actually do flock together. Your discussion must include the following (for 5 marks each): • Similarity-Dissimilarity effect: A consistence contributor of attraction (5 Marks) • Balance Theory (5 Marks) • Social Comparison Theory (5 Marks)	(15)
Q.2.2	Explain what is meant by the phrase "opposites attract". Make use of two relevant and credible references to support your answer.	(15)
Q.2.3	Based on the research done in Q.2.1 and Q.2.2, provide your position and justify.	(10)

Criteria: Essay Q.2.1	Does not meet the required standard	Meets the required standard	Exceeds the required standard
Discussion:	0 – 2 marks	3 marks	4 - 5 marks
Similarity-Dissimilarity effect	• The student made little to no effort to provide an accurate discussion of Similarity-Dissimilarity effect: A consistence contributor of attraction.	• The student attempted to provide an accurate discussion of Similarity-Dissimilarity effect: A consistence contributor of attraction; however it is not as accurate and/ or clear as it could be.	• The student provided a clear and accurate discussion of Similarity-Dissimilarity effect: A consistence contributor of attraction, in an insightful manner.

© The Independent Institute of Education (Pty) Ltd 2023

Criteria: Essay Q.2.1	Does not meet the required standard	Meets the required standard	Exceeds the required standard
Discussion:	0 – 2 marks	3 marks	4 - 5 marks
Balance Theory	• The student made little to no effort to provide an accurate discussion of Balance Theory.	• The student attempted to provide an accurate discussion of Balance Theory; however it is not as accurate and/ or clear as it could be.	• The student provided a clear and accurate discussion of Balance Theory, in an insightful manner.

Criteria: Essay Q.2.1	Does not meet the required standard	Meets the required standard	Exceeds the required standard
Discussion:	0 – 2 marks	3 marks	4 - 5 marks
Social Comparison Theory	• The student made little to no effort to provide an accurate discussion of Social Comparison Theory.	• The student attempted to provide an accurate discussion of Social Comparison Theory; however it is not as accurate and/ or clear as it could be.	• The student provided a clear and accurate discussion of Social Comparison Theory, in an insightful manner.

Criteria: Essay Q.2.2	Does not meet the required standard	Meets the required standard	Exceeds the required standard
Explanation	0 – 7 marks	8 - 11 marks	12 - 15 marks
"opposites attract"?	• The student made little to no effort to provide an accurate explanation of what is meant by the phrase "opposites attract".	• The student attempted to provide an accurate explanation of what is meant by the phrase "opposites attract"; however it is not as accurate and/ or clear as it could be.	• The student provided a clear and accurate explanation of what is meant by the phrase "opposites attract", in an insightful manner.
Reference:	• The student made little to no effort to use two relevant and credible references to support their answer.	• The student attempted to use two relevant and credible references to support their answer; however, they are not as accurate as they could be.	• The student used two highly relevant and credible references to support their answer.

© The Independent Institute of Education (Pty) Ltd 2023

Criteria: Essay Q.2.3	Does not meet the required standard	Meets the required standard	Exceeds the required standard
	0 – 4 marks	5 - 7 marks	8 - 10 marks
Position and justification	• The student made little to no effort to provide their position and justification.	• The student attempted to provide their position and justification; however it is not as accurate and/ or clear as it could be.	• The student provided a clear and accurate position and justification, in an insightful manner.

Question 3 (Marks: 50)

Marriage is considered a "major and compulsory conformity to society".

Make use of relevant and credible references to answer the questions that follow.

Q.3.1	Provide a detailed explanation of (for 10 marks) what is conformity and briefly explain (for 5 marks) the statement "marriage is a form of conformity to society"	(15)
Q.3.2	Provide (for 15 marks) a detailed discussion of how social norms emerge and provide (for 5 marks) an example to support your answer. Make use of two relevant and credible references to support your answer.	(20)
Q.3.3	Discuss (for 10 marks) the normative and informational social influences. Provide (for 5 marks) an example that demonstrates the normative and informational social influences to support your discussion.	(15)

Criteria: Essay Q.3.1	Does not meet the required standard	Meets the required standard	Exceeds the required standard
Detailed Explanation:	0 – 4 marks	5 - 7 marks	8 - 10 marks
Conformity	• The student made little to no effort to provide an accurate and detailed explanation of what is conformity.	• The student attempted to provide an accurate and detailed explanation of what is conformity; however it is not as accurate and/ or clear as it could be.	• The student provided a clear, accurate and detailed explanation of what is conformity, in an insightful manner.

© The Independent Institute of Education (Pty) Ltd 2023

Criteria: Essay Q.3.1	Does not meet the required standard	Meets the required standard	Exceeds the required standard
Explanation:	0 – 2 marks	3 marks	4-5 marks
"marriage is a form of conformity to society"	• The student made little to no effort to provide an accurate explanation of the statement "marriage is a form of conformity to society".	• The student attempted to provide an accurate explanation of the statement "marriage is a form of conformity to society"; however it is not as accurate and/ or clear as it could be.	• The student provided a clear and accurate explanation of the statement "marriage is a form of conformity to society", in an insightful manner.

Criteria: Essay Q.3.2	Does not meet the required standard	Meets the required standard	Exceeds the required standard
Detailed Discussion:	0 – 7 marks	8 - 11 marks	12 - 15 marks
how social norms emerge	• The student made little to no effort to provide an accurate and detailed discussion of how social norms emerge.	• The student attempted to provide an accurate and detailed discussion of how social norms emerge; however it is not as accurate and/ or clear as it could be.	• The student provided a clear, accurate and detailed discussion of how social norms emerge, known as the light experiment, in an insightful manner.
References:	• The student made little to no effort to use two relevant and credible references to support their answer.	• The student attempted to use two relevant and credible references to support their answer; however, they are not as accurate as they could be.	• The student used two highly relevant and credible references to support their answer.

Criteria: Essay Q.3.2	Does not meet the required standard	Meets the required standard	Exceeds the required standard
Example:	0 – 2 marks	3 marks	4 - 5 marks
	• The student made little to no effort to provide an accurate example that demonstrates the normative and informational social influences to support your discussion.	• The student attempted to provide an accurate example that demonstrates the normative and informational social influences to support your discussion; however it is not as accurate and/ or clear as it could be.	• The student provided a clear and accurate example that demonstrates the normative and informational social influences to support your discussion, in an insightful manner.

© The Independent Institute of Education (Pty) Ltd 2023

Criteria: Essay Q.3.3	Does not meet the required standard	Meets the required standard	Exceeds the required standard
Discussion:	0 – 4 marks	5 - 7 marks	8 - 10 marks
normative and informational social influences	• The student made little to no effort to provide an accurate discussion of normative and informational social influences.	• The student attempted to provide an accurate discussion of normative and informational social influences; however it is not as accurate and/ or clear as it could be.	• The student provided a clear and accurate discussion of normative and informational social influences, in an insightful manner.

Criteria: Essay Q.3.3	Does not meet the required standard	Meets the required standard	Exceeds the required standard
Example:	0 – 2 marks	3 marks	4 - 5 marks
	• The student made little to no effort to provide an accurate example that demonstrates the normative and informational social influences to support your discussion..	• The student attempted to provide an accurate example that demonstrates the normative and informational social influences to support your discussion; however it is not as accurate and/ or clear as it could be.	• The student provided a clear and accurate example that demonstrates the normative and informational social influences to support your discussion, in an insightful manner.

END OF PAPER

© The Independent Institute of Education (Pty) Ltd 2023